Can you please give reasons for your objection, so that they can be considered.

Extract from Street Trading Policy – Objections

Before such a referral is made officers will assess the objections on the following criteria:

1. Potential, or actual, nuisance to a property occupier from noise, fumes or smells.
2. Concern of public order problems resulting from the proposed street trading activity.
3. Any other valid reason raised that would affect the occupier of a property as a result of the application made.
4. Any other valid reason raised by any interested party or relevant person.

I attach the policy for information
