1	Thrapston Town Council	Section 10 – ‘The Licensing Authority shall, as default, post all relevant elements of the application online, including but not limited to red line plans, application form and relevant supplementary documents’ Our Committee believe this is standard in the majority of authorities.	Comment noted	There are GDPR and technical issues which prevent this. No action.
2	Wellingborough Town Council	Thank you for circulating the consultation on the Gambling Principles Draft Policy. The Town Council would like to emphasize the need for effective control of gambling machines and endorse 6.1, 7.1 and 7.2 of the policy which controls the use of betting machines and gambling by children, young persons and vulnerable people.	Comment noted	No action.
3	Councillor Anne Lee	Comment: I propose to ban fairs from giving goldfish as prizes. That is within our power in our licensing policy, unless I am mistaken. I have no other comment on this draft policy.	Comment noted	This matter does not fall within the remit of this policy. Councillor Lee has been given advice on the relevant legislation and local controls. No further action.
